The Lakeview Biomass Project
Fletcher Fire
July 15th, 2007
“Red Zone”
Fremont Winema NF
Collins Lakeview Sawmill
Small Log Capability
The Lakeview Biomass Project, and the Collins Small-diameter Sawmill Highlights

- 2004 - Lakeview Biomass Feasibility completed by CH2MHIll for Lake County Resources Initiative
- 2005 - Governor Kulongoski sponsors the Lakeview Biomass Oregon Solutions Project
- September - Forest Service and BLM contracts with Mater Engineering
- November - Long-Range Strategy for the Lakeview Federal Stewardship Unit Completed
- 2007 - January - Announcement by Governor Kulongoski of DG Energy and The Collins Company building a biomass cogeneration plant in Lakeview
- November – Ribbon cutting for Collins new small diameter sawmill and 20-Year Supply MOU is signed
- Winter - Pacific NW Region assists Fremont-Winema NFs in developing a 10-year Integrated Resources Service Contract
- 2009 - Marubeni Sustainable Energy sells Lakeview Biomass development rights to Iberdrola Renewables
What does this mean to the Community

- Infrastructure to deal with a very unhealthy forest
- 200-250 Construction jobs
- 18 Good paying electrical production jobs
- 50-60 Jobs in the Woods
- 59 Indirect Jobs